

Center position of handle (as shown) allows flow to both chambers.

Moving handle to far right or left diverts flow to the chamber UNDER the handle. This allows for removal and cleaning of the basket not in use.

